

---

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Christopher D. Adams.

---

DIGEST

Mills

SR No. 22

Requests the Department of Health and Hospitals to establish prevention of disease as a primary model of health care, increase awareness of vitamin D deficiency and vitamin D blood testing, and promote awareness of the potential long-term health benefits of and increased chances of cancer survival with sufficient levels of vitamin D.