

---

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Heyward Jeffers.

---

DIGEST

Walsworth (SB 253)

Present law provides that the attorney general or his designee will be responsible for the legal representation of the office of the state inspector general.

Proposed law provides that the office of the state inspector general may employ its own legal counsel.

Proposed law provides that if the office of the state inspector general needs additional legal representation on a matter it may obtain such representation from the attorney general or his designee.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 49:220.22(D))