

Prior law provided that prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule or fee an agency must submit a report relative to such proposed change to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature and the presiding officers of the respective houses.

New law retains prior law.

Prior law provided that the report will be submitted to each standing committee at the committee's office in the state capitol by certified mail with return receipt requested or by messenger who shall provide a receipt for signature. The return receipt or the messenger's receipt shall be proof of receipt of the report by the committee.

New law retains prior law and provides that the report will be submitted to the oversight committees electronically when electronic means are available, and that electronic receipt shall be proof of receipt of the report by the committee.

Effective August 1, 2012.
