12 (3)(a) Absent a valid court order requiring the release of information, or 13 unless an applicant or a recipient of a concealed handgun permit is charged with a 14 felony offense involving the use of a handgun, it shall be unlawful for any employee
15 of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections or any law enforcement officer 16 to intentionally release or disseminate for publication any information contained in 17 an application for a concealed handgun permit or any information regarding the 18 identity of any person who applied for or received a concealed handgun permit 19 issued pursuant to this Section. A person who violates the provisions of this

1 Subparagraph shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, imprisoned for not 2 more than six months, or both.

3 (b)(i) It shall be unlawful for any person other than an employee of the 4 Department of Public Safety and Corrections or a law enforcement officer to 5 intentionally release, disseminate, or make public in any manner any information
6 contained in an application for a concealed handgun permit or any information 7 regarding the identity of any person who applied for or received a concealed 8 handgun permit issued pursuant to this Section. Any person who violates the 9 provisions of this Subparagraph shall be fined ten thousand dollars and may be 10 imprisoned for not more than six months.

11 (ii) The provisions of this Subparagraph shall not apply to the release of 12 information under any of the following circumstances:

13 (aa) A valid court order requires the release of the information.

14 (bb) The information released identifies a concealed handgun permit holder 15 or applicant who is charged with a felony offense involving the use of a handgun.

16 (cc) The information regarding a concealed handgun permit applicant or 17 holder is released pursuant to the express approval for the release of such 18 information by that permit applicant or holder.

19 (dd) The information regarding a concealed handgun permit holder or 20 applicant has been made public by that concealed handgun permit holder or 21 applicant.
