Subject: Probation

PROBATION EG NO IMPACT See Note Page 1 of 1

Provides for the procedures by which conditions of probation may be modified, changed, or discharged and procedures by which a defendant's probation may be terminated

Proposed law amends present law to provide for the following: 1) The court may modify, change, or discharge the probation conditions if the state has previously provided written verification that it has no opposition. 2) The court may impose additional conditions of probation authorized by present law without a contradictory hearing with the state. 3) In a felony case, the court may terminate the defendant's probation, early or as unsatisfactory, and discharge him at any time after the expiration of one year of probation if the state has previously provided written verification that it has no opposition, or after a contradictory hearing with the state. 4) In a misdemeanor case, the court may terminate the defendant's suspended sentence or probation and discharge him at any time if the termination or discharge is ordered in open court and the state is present and has the opportunity to participate in a contradictory hearing. 5) If the court orders a contradictory hearing on the issue of the modification, change, or discharge of probation conditions or on the termination of a defendant's probation in a felony case, the court shall provide notice of the hearing to the defendant at least 15 days prior to the hearing date.
