HB No. 237

Abstract: Removes the mandatory retirement age for certain constables.

Present law provides that any person who qualifies to run for the office of constable after 2008 shall not have attained the age of 70 years by the date of qualification, and further provides that any constable who attains 70 years of age while serving a term of office shall be allowed to complete that term of office.

Proposed law exempts Livingston Parish from the provisions of present law.
