MTR VEHICLE/COMPULS INS: Provides relative to motor vehicle liability security

DIGEST

Abstract: Increases penalties for operating vehicle without the required liability insurance.

Present law requires a fine not to exceed $1,000 for violation of the Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law.

Proposed law adds requirement for a minimum fine of not less than $75.

Present law requires that the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections (DPS&C) revoke the registration, impound, or cancel the vehicle license plate of a vehicle not covered by security as required by the Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law. Provides that such revocation be for a minimum of six months and a maximum of 18 months.

Proposed law increases the minimum suspension to 12 months when the owner submits false information that the vehicle was covered by the required security. Retains 18-month maximum.

Present law requires a reinstatement fee of $25 if a vehicle was not covered by the required security for a period of one to 31 days, a fee of $100 for a period of 31 to 90 days, and a fee of $200 for a period in excess of 90 days.

Proposed law increases the reinstatement fee from $25 to $50 if a vehicle was not covered by the required security for a period of one to 31 days, from $100 to $150 for a period of 31 to 90 days, and from $200 to $300 for a period in excess of 90 days. Proposed law also increases reinstatement fees for a first violation of providing false information from $25 to $125; a second violation from $100 to $200; and a third or subsequent violation from $200 to $400.

Proposed law deletes present law that provides that if a person has multiple violations at the time of reinstatement, the total amount of fees shall not exceed $500 for a person under 65 years old, and $200 for a person 65 years or older.

Present law provides that sanctions and reinstatement fees for failure to maintain the required security may be waived when the owner furnishes evidence that the vehicle is currently covered by the required security.

Proposed law requires that the required security be continuous without lapse.

Present law requires an owner to have certain documents proving security coverage. Proposed law increases penalties for lack of such proof as follows: from $50 to $100 for a first offense; from $150 to $250 for a second offense; and retains present law of $500 for a third or subsequent offense.

Present law provides criminal sanctions for false declaration of meeting surety requirements. Proposed law increases those sanctions from not more than $125 to between $250 and $500.

Present law provides criminal sanctions for knowingly operating a vehicle without the required surety. Proposed law increases those sanctions from not more than $500 to between $500 and $1,000.

Present law provides criminal sanctions for a vehicle not covered by the required surety that is involved in an accident. Proposed law increases those sanctions from not more than $500 and registration and license revocation of 60 days to between $500 and $1,000 and registration and license revocation for 180 days.

Present law requires the secretary to procure and implement a real-time system to verify the existence of motor vehicle insurance in compliance with the Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law.

Proposed law provides that a portion of the monies collected from each set of sanctions shall be appropriated to fund the creation and maintenance of a real-time system.

Effective February 1, 2015.

(Amends R.S. 32:862(G)(4), 863(A)(1) and (3)(a), and (B)(2)(b), 863.1(I)(3), 864, and 865(A) and (B)(1); Adds R.S. 32:868)
