

New law authorizes the governing authority of any municipality having a population between 12,850 and 13,075, according to the latest federal decennial census, to levy a sales tax of up to 1% if approved by the electors of the municipality.

Effective upon signature of governor (June 5, 2014).

(Adds R.S. 47:338.197)