§337.2. Intent; application and interpretation of Chapter

A.(1) The intention of the legislature in enacting the provisions of this Chapter is as follows:

* * *

(c) To provide, in addition to existing judicial remedies, for an impartial, economical, and expeditious forum where a taxpayer may choose to resolve disputes arising under sales and use taxes imposed by local taxing authorities before the Board of Tax Appeals, an independent quasi judicial agency within the Department of State Civil Service; and to provide a uniform remedy for taxpayers appealing assessments or denials or inaction on a refund claim, all for the purpose of promoting uniformity and consistency in the interpretation and application of law governing such taxes.

* * *

D. However, in the interest of making the assessment, collection, administration, and enforcement of state and local sales tax uniform, it is the intention of the legislature that both the provisions of this Chapter and the provisions of local ordinances which are similar to provisions in Chapters 2, 2-A, 2-B, and 18 of this Subtitle shall be interpreted by the Board of Tax Appeals and the courts of this state to have the same meaning and application as the provisions in those Chapters.

* * *

§337.45. Alternative remedies for the collection of taxes

A. In addition to following any of the special remedies provided in this Chapter, the collector may, in his discretion, proceed to enforce the collection of any taxes due under the local ordinance by means of any of the following alternative remedies or procedures:

(1) Assessment and distraint, as provided in R.S. 47:337.48 through 337.60; provided that a taxpayer may utilize the mandatory arbitration procedure provided for in R.S. 47:337.51.1.

* * *
B. The collector may choose which of these procedures he will pursue in each case, and the counter-remedies and delays to which the taxpayer will be entitled will be only those which are not inconsistent with the proceeding initiated by the collector, provided that in every case the taxpayer shall be entitled to proceed under R.S. 47:337.63, except (a) after he has filed a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals for a redetermination of the assessment, (b) when an assessment for the tax in question has become final, or (b) when a suit involving the same tax obligation is pending against him; and provided further, that the fact that the collector has initiated proceedings under the assessment and distraint procedure will not preclude him from thereafter proceeding by summary or ordinary court proceedings for the enforcement of the same tax obligation.

§337.48. Determination and notice of tax due

A. (1) If a taxpayer fails to make and file any return or report required by the provisions of the local ordinance and this Chapter, the collector shall determine the tax, penalty, and interest due by estimate or otherwise. Having determined the amount of tax, penalty, and interest due, the collector shall send by mail a notice to the taxpayer at the address given in the last report filed by him pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, or to any address that may be obtainable from any private entity which will provide such address free of charge or from any federal, state, or local government entity, including but not limited to the U.S. Postal Service or from U.S. Postal Service certified software, setting out his determination and informing the person of his purpose to assess the amount so determined against him after fifteen calendar days from the date of the notice.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a notice issued pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this Subsection to a taxpayer or dealer who fails to make and file any required report or return shall not be appealable to the Board of Tax Appeals for redetermination of the notice of tax due issued pursuant to this Section when the notice is solely for the periods and is in the amount stated on the notice transmitted to such taxpayer or dealer pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this Subsection. Nothing in this Paragraph shall prohibit any taxpayer or dealer from proceeding to file suit pursuant to R.S. 47:337.63 or 337.64, or any other applicable law.

§337.51. Notice of assessment and right to appeal or arbitration

A.(1) Having assessed the amount determined to be due, the collector shall send a notice by certified mail to the taxpayer against whom the assessment is imposed at the address given in the last report filed by said the taxpayer, or to any address obtainable from any private entity which will provide such address free of charge or from any federal, state, or local government entity, including but not limited to the United States Postal Service or from the United States Postal Service certified software. (3) If the taxpayer has not paid under protest in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 47:337.63, or pursued an alternative remedy in accordance with R.S. 47:337.64, or filed an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals within the thirty-day period provided for in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, the assessment shall be final and shall be collectible by distraint and sale as provided in this Part. If an appeal for a redetermination of the assessment has been timely and properly filed, the assessment shall not be collectible by distraint and sale until such time as the assessment has been redetermined or affirmed by the Board of Tax Appeals or the court which last reviews the matter.

B. If any dealer shall be aggrieved by disputes any findings or assessment of the collector, he may, within thirty days of the receipt of notice of the assessment or finding, do any of the following:

If an appeal for a redetermination of the assessment has been timely and properly filed with the Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to Subparagraph (1)(a) of this Subsection, the assessment shall not be collectible by distraint and sale until the assessment has been redetermined or affirmed by the Board of Tax Appeals or the court which last reviews the matter.

(3) A notice of tax due issued pursuant to the provisions of R.S. 47:337.48 shall not constitute a finding for purposes of this Subsection.

(2) The determination of an error of fact or of law under this Subsection shall be solely that of the collector, and no action against the collector with respect to the determination shall be brought in any court, including the Board of Tax Appeals, and no court shall have jurisdiction of any such action, it being the intent of this Subsection only to permit the collector to correct manifest errors of fact or in the application of the law made by the collector in making the assessment; however, all reductions of assessments based on such errors, except estimated assessments made due to the failure of the taxpayer to file a proper tax return, must be approved and signed by the collector. Estimated assessments made due to the failure of the taxpayer to file a proper tax return may be corrected by the acceptance of the proper tax return and must be approved by the collector or his designee.

Such assessment may be made whenever a tax becomes due under the provisions of this Chapter, regardless of whether it is then payable or not. Claims for such assessments, and additional interest and attorney fees thereon, shall be presented for adjudication in accordance with law to the court before which the bankruptcy or receivership proceeding is pending despite the pendency of delays before assessment provided in R.S. 47:337.48 through 337.51, or the pendency of an appeal to the collector, the Board of Tax Appeals, or the courts for a redetermination. However, no petition for the redetermination of an assessment shall be filed with the collector, the Board of Tax Appeals, or the courts after an adjudication of bankruptcy or the appointment of a receiver, unless the petition is accompanied by a certified copy of an order of the court before which the bankruptcy or receivership proceedings is pending, authorizing the trustee or receiver to prosecute such appeal.

§337.77. Refunds of overpayments authorized

* * *

F. This Section shall not be construed to authorize any refund of tax overpaid through a mistake of law arising from the misinterpretation by the collector of the provisions of any law or of any rules and regulations. In the event a taxpayer believes that the collector has misinterpreted the law or rules and regulations contrary therewith, his remedy is by payment under protest and suit to recover or petition to the Board of Tax Appeals, as provided by law.

No appeal may be filed or request for arbitration made before the expiration of one year from the date of filing such claim unless the collector renders a decision thereon within that time, nor after the expiration of ninety days from the date of mailing by certified or registered mail by the collector to the taxpayer of a notice of the disallowance of the part of the claim to which such appeal relates, nor after the expiration of one hundred eighty days from the end of the year in which the collector failed to act.

* * *

C. In answering any such appeal, the collector is authorized to assert a demand for any tax and additions thereto that he may deem is due for the period involved in the claim for refund or credit, and the Board of Tax Appeals shall have jurisdiction to determine the correct amount of tax for the period in controversy, and to render judgment ordering the refund or crediting of any overpayment or ordering the payment of any additional tax, interest, penalty, attorney fees, and other amounts found to be due.

§337.81.1. Board of Tax Appeals' finding of overpayment upon appeal from assessment

If the Board of Tax Appeals, pursuant to a hearing of an appeal from an assessment of the collector in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 47:337.51, 337.53, or 337.54, finds that there is no tax due and further finds that the taxpayer has made a refundable overpayment of the tax for the period for which the collector asserted the claim for additional tax, the Board of Tax Appeals shall have jurisdiction to determine the amount of the overpayment, and to order that the amount of overpayment be refunded or credited to the taxpayer; however, the Board of Tax Appeals shall not order a refund or credit unless, as part of its decision, it determines

(2)(a) The collector shall not impose penalties or interest on taxes erroneously paid to another taxing authority unless the erroneous payment was the result of intentional conduct or gross negligence on the part of the persons collecting and remitting taxes. In instances where a legitimate disagreement exists as to which taxing authority is owed, the involved taxing authorities shall resolve the dispute among themselves through any legal means, including the filing of a rule or petition in the manner provided for in R.S. 47:337.101.

D. If an assessment of a local collector is appealed to the board for redetermination that covers both a sales and use tax matter that is appealable to the board together with a tax matter that is not appealable to the board, the local collector may either consent to the board’s adjudication of the matter or consent that the appealable assessment should be reduced by a stipulated amount, and the local collector may then immediately, and without any other delays provided for by law, issue a new assessment for the stipulated amount.
