

New law provides for the design and creation of the "George Rodrigue Foundation" special prestige license plate provided there is a minimum of 1,000 applicants.

New law provides for the collection of a $30 royalty fee, as well as a handling fee of $3.50 for each plate to be retained by the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections to offset a portion of administrative costs.

New law provides that monies collected by the department and forwarded to the George Rodrigue Foundation of the Arts, or its successor organization, be used to plan, develop, and implement a series of unique educational art programs that are specially designed to enhance and expand art curriculums and expose children to education in the arts.

Effective Aug. 1, 2014.
