

Existing law authorizes the DPS&C to promulgate rules and regulations regarding the restoration of previously forfeited good time for disciplinary violations or credits toward the reduction of the projected good time parole supervision date.

Prior law provided that in order to be eligible for restoration of good time or credits toward the reduction of the projected good time parole supervision date which has been previously forfeited, the inmate shall not have been found guilty of any disciplinary violation for a consecutive 24-month period.

New law changes prior law from disciplinary action to rule violations and distinguishes between major and minor rule violations.

New law provides that in order to be eligible for restoration of good time, the inmate shall not have been found guilty of a major rule violation for a consecutive 24-month period and a minor rule violation for a consecutive six-month period.

Effective Aug. 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 15:571.4(C))