7 " * * *

8 §456.2. Professional association dues; sheriff; district attorney; judge

9 Any employee of the state or of any political subdivision of the state may 10 authorize his employer to withhold from his salary a specific amount for such pay 11 periods as may be designated, for payment of his dues to any professional sheriff, 12 district attorney, or judge association which is located or is operating a chapter 13 within the respective jurisdiction and to which the employee belongs. The employee 14 must voluntarily execute and furnish to the employer a written and specific 15 authorization for such deduction. Upon receipt of such authorization, and in 16 accordance with the instructions contained therein, the employer shall begin to make 17 such deductions. The amounts withheld shall be remitted forthwith to the 18 organization designated by the employee."
