HB 486 Original

2016 Regular Session

Robert Johnson

Abstract: Allows administrative hearings to be conducted telephonically on the seizure of assets with regard to child support orders.

Present law allows the Dept. of Children and Family Services, in instances of overpayment of arrearages made to a custodial parent, to intercept, encumber, freeze, or seize specified payments or assets. Present law further provides that when DCFS exercises this right, it must notify the parent of its actions, and afford the parent an opportunity to appeal the seizing of the assets.

Proposed law provides that a hearing on the seizure of assets may be done telephonically, and that the sole issue at the hearing will be whether the obligor is in compliance with the order of support or whether the custodial party owes an overpayment of support.
