DIGEST

SB 270 Original

2016 Regular Session

Boudreaux

Present law provides for the protection of personally identifiable student information.

Proposed law retains present law and additionally provides that the Dept. of Education shall provide each local public school system with the information, including personally identifiable information, the system deems necessary to verify the enrollment and residency status of each student residing within the boundaries of the school system but who are enrolled in a public school outside of the jurisdiction of the local school system. Requires the local school system to keep such information confidential and limits the use of the information to the purpose of verifying student enrollment and residency.

Present law provides for a penalty of not more than six months imprisonment or a fine of not more than $10,000 for anyone who violates the provisions of present law.

Proposed law provides that this penalty shall apply to a local public school system that fails to keep confidential the information provided to verify student enrollment and residency pursuant to proposed law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
