Proposed law prohibits a retail pet store from offering for sale a dog or cat that is younger than eight weeks old.

Proposed law requires each retail pet store offering dogs or cats for sale to post, in a conspicuous location on the cage or enclosure for each dog or cat, a sign containing the following:

- (1) The date and place of birth of each dog or cat, or, if not known, the approximate age of the dog or cat.
- (2) The sex, color markings, and other identifying information of each dog or cat, including any tag, tattoo, collar number, or microchip information.
- (3) The name, business address, phone number, and email address of the breeder of the dog or cat.
- (4) The breeder's USDA license number, and, if the breeder is required to be licensed in the state in which the breeder is located, the breeder's state license number.

Proposed law requires retail pet stores offering dogs or cats for sale to post USDA inspection reports of the breeder for the two years prior to the first day that the dog or cat is offered for sale.

Proposed law requires retail pet stores offering dogs or cats for sale to maintain records of the source of each dog or cat, including a description of the dog or cat, the name, business address, email address, and USDA license number of the breeder for at least two years following the date of acquisition. Such records shall be made available, immediately upon request, to any law enforcement officer or animal control officer.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
