SB 267 Engrossed

DIGEST
2016 Regular Session

Morrell

Present law provides relative to capital outlay funding.

Proposed law provides that if an entity or organization has received $1,000,000 in capital outlay funding for a project that collects a general admission charge, such entity or organization shall designate six days each year where Louisiana residents are exempt from paying the general admission charge.

Effective January 1, 2017.
