performing their duties as a state police officer, or a law enforcement or fire protection officer who qualified for the salary supplement authorized in Section 10(D)(3) of this Article is entitled to an exemption from ad valorem tax for the total assessed value of their homestead. The exemption shall apply beginning in the tax year in which the person died or 2017, whichever is later, and shall be applicable only if all of the following conditions are met:

- (a) The property is eligible for the homestead exemption and the property was the residence of the member of the armed forces of the United States or the Louisiana National Guard, the state police officer, or the law enforcement or fire protection officer when the member or officer died.
  - (b) The surviving spouse has not remarried.
- (c) The surviving spouse annually provides evidence of their eligibility for the exemption in accordance with the requirements of Subparagraph (2) of this Paragraph.
- (2) Each assessor shall establish a procedure whereby a person may annually apply for the exemption. Eligibility for the exemption shall be established by the production of documents and certification of information by the surviving spouse to the assessor as follows:
- (a) In an initial application for the exemption, the surviving spouse shall produce documentation issued by their deceased spouse's employer evidencing the death.
- (b) For purposes of the continuation of an existing exemption, the surviving spouse shall annually provide a sworn statement to the assessor attesting to the fact that the surviving spouse has not remarried.
- (3) Once an unmarried surviving spouse has qualified for and taken the exemption, if the surviving spouse then acquires a different property which qualifies for the homestead exemption, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to an exemption on that subsequent homestead, the exemption being limited in value to the amount of the exemption claimed on the prior homestead in the last year for which the exemption was claimed. The assessor may require the submission of certain
