

2016 Second Extraordinary Session

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 12

BY REPRESENTATIVE LEGER

A RESOLUTION

To commend the 2016 graduates of the Louisiana Education Policy Fellowship Program.

WHEREAS, the Louisiana Education Policy Fellowship Program (EPFP) is a statewide program available to education policy leaders; and

WHEREAS, EPFP brings together established and emerging leaders to expand and contextualize their understanding of education policy at all levels, from local schools to federal oversight; and

WHEREAS, over a period of ten months, EPFP fellows hone their skills through colloquiums and professional development sessions based on three pillars: leadership, network, and policy; and

WHEREAS, the gathering of EPFP fellows provides the foundation for a powerful network dedicated to shaping and implementing meaningful improvement and reform of education in the state; and

WHEREAS, the 2016 inaugural Louisiana EPFP graduates are Brian Adams, representing Teach For America South Louisiana; Marsha Broussard, representing the Louisiana Public Health Institute; Sherdren Burnside, representing Journey Ninth Ward Assembly of God; Lisa French, representing the Louisiana Department of Education; Dr. Lisa Green-Derry, representing Urban Strategies, Inc.; Susan Kahn, representing the University of Louisiana Lafayette; Sara Massey, representing Communities in Schools New Orleans; Zakenya Perry Neely, representing the Orleans Public Education Network; Brionne Stewart, representing Young Audiences Charter School; and Adrian Todd, representing Total Community Action New Orleans; and

WHEREAS, the members of the 2016 graduating cohort of Louisiana EPFP merit sincere commendation for their cooperative accomplishments and the tremendous pride they bring to their communities and the state.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend the 2016 inaugural graduates of the Louisiana Education Policy Fellowship Program and does hereby recognize and record for posterity their contributions to the field of education in Louisiana.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable copy of this Resolution be transmitted to each of the 2016 graduates of Louisiana EPFP.
