

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

HR 227

2016 Regular Session

Jones

Creates a task force to study the local governance of public elementary and secondary education in La. and provides for the submission of a written report of findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the House Committee on Education at least 60 days before the 2018 R.S. Provides that the report shall include an examination, at minimum, of the following:

- (1) The advisability, feasibility, and potential effects of providing for each local public school district to have an executive branch, president, or equivalent with veto power over the school board and other powers and duties.
- (2) The common characteristics of local public school governance structures in states with successful and highly regarded public education systems.
- (3) Research conducted by think tanks or other academic research on the issue of local school governance.
- (4) Recommendations, if any, for legislation related to local public school governance.

Provides for 20 members who serve without compensation; that the task force may seek input from individuals whose fields of expertise and experience would assist the task force in conducting its duties; and that the representative of the governor's office shall convene the task force for its first meeting by Sept. 1, 2016.
