

2017 First Extraordinary Session

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 7

BY SENATORS CLAITOR, LAMBERT, LUNEAU, MARTINY, MILKOVICH, MORRELL, PETERSON, GARY SMITH AND WARD

CONDOLENCES. Expresses condolences upon the death of civil law scholar Professor A. N. Yiannopoulos.

1 A RESOLUTION

2 To express the sincere condolences of the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana upon the 3 death of A. N. "Thanassi" Yiannopoulos, an outstanding law professor, scholar, and 4 reviser of the Louisiana Civil Code.

5 WHEREAS, it is with great sadness that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana
6 has learned of the passing of Athanassios Nicholas "Thanassi" Yiannopoulos, a civil law 7 professor who taught at both the Louisiana State University Paul M. Hebert Law Center and 8 Tulane University Law School; and

9 WHEREAS, known as "Thanassi" to his friends and "Yippy" to his law students, 10 Yiannopoulos was a brilliant intellectual and legal scholar; he was a legal theorist without 11 par, having earned impressive credentials that included a Diploma in Law, Doctor of Laws, 12 Master of Civil Law, Master of Laws, Doctor of Juridical Science, and Doctor of 13 Jurisprudence; and

14 WHEREAS, his advanced degrees were earned from the University of Thessaloniki
15 (Greece), the University of Chicago as a Fulbright Scholar, the University of California, 16 Berkeley, and University of Cologne (Germany); and

17 WHEREAS, a third-generation attorney, Yippy was born in northern Greece in 1928;
18 during World War II, he was a revolutionary in the youth resistance against the fascist

1 occupation of his homeland; after the war, he obtained his law degree, served in the military,
2 then immigrated to the United States to attend the University of Chicago; and

3 WHEREAS, while teaching at the University of Cologne in Germany, he was 4 approached to become an associate professor at LSU, which he accepted in 1958; and

5 WHEREAS, in 1968, he began revisions to the Louisiana Civil Code, a body of work 6 that would dominate much of his time and attention during his professional career; and

7 WHEREAS, with its origins in France, Spain and ancient Rome, the civil code is the 8 primary source of private law in Louisiana, based in legislation rather than in case law; and

9 WHEREAS, his scholarship reshaped Louisiana civil law and his teaching has 10 produced multiple generations of attorneys, judges, and law professors; and

11 WHEREAS, his lectures and stories were epic, and his wrath and rapier wit befell 12 the ill-prepared law student who, when called upon, did not produce an informed and 13 detailed explanation of the class assignment; and

14 WHEREAS, he published widely in the fields of civil law, comparative law, conflict
15 of laws, property, and admiralty; he acted as reporter for the Louisiana Law Institute, editor
16 of the Pamphlet Edition of the Louisiana Civil Code for West's Publishing, and authored 17 three volumes of the civil law treatise series, numerous textbooks, and countless law review 18 articles; and

19 WHEREAS, his revisions of civil code provisions on quasi-contracts became law in 20 1996, on representation and mandate in 1998, on deposit and sequestration in 2003, and on 21 loan in 2004; and

22 WHEREAS, throughout the 1970s and 1980s he assisted in amending nearly every 23 article of the Louisiana Civil Code affecting property, including acquisitive prescription, 24 usufruct, nuisance, enclosed estates, and the classification of things; and

25 WHEREAS, he was a member of the International Academy of Comparative Law
26 at the Hague and the American Law Institute, and was a founder of the Civil Law 27 Commentaries; and

28 WHEREAS, proclaimed as one of Louisiana's most influential scholars, his expertise 29 went beyond the general precepts of property, civil law, and common law; his scholarship 30 embraced current English law, old English law, German civil law, French civil law from the

1 early 1800s, French civil law today, Greek civil law, ancient Greek legal systems, and much 2 more; and

3 WHEREAS, in 1979, Yiannopoulos became an Eason-Weinmann Professor of 4 Comparative Law after accepting an endowed chair from Tulane Law School; after thirty 5 years, he retired from the full-time faculty but continued as Professor Emeritus to teach one 6 course each year; and

7 WHEREAS, Yippy believed that civil law played a fundamental role in a balanced 8 legal system, and reformation of the Louisiana Civil Code was his passion; he garnered the 9 respect and praise of his peers; he was admired by his students even when he was, at times, 10 difficult; and his intellectual brilliance had no match; and

11 WHEREAS, Professor A. N. Yiannopoulos is survived by his wife, Mirta Valdes;
12 a daughter, Maria; three sons, Nicholas, Alexander, and Philip; three granddaughters, 13 Sophia, Christina, and Caroline; a sister, and legions of friends and professional colleagues.

14 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana 15 does hereby express sincere and heartfelt condolences upon the death of former LSU and 16 Tulane law professor, A. N. "Thanassi" Yiannopoulos.

17 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana does 18 hereby acknowledge his legacy of scholarship and expertise of the Louisiana Civil Code and 19 his many contributions made for the betterment of the legal system of Louisiana.

20 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to his 21 wife, Mirta V. Yiannopoulos.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Susan P. Montague.

DIGEST

SR 7 Original

2017 First Extraordinary Session

Claitor

Expresses condolences upon the death of law professor A. N. Yiannopoulos.