10           "Section 2.(A) The terms of all members of the board of directors of the East Baton 11           Rouge Council on Aging who are serving on the effective date of this Act shall terminate on 12           that date; however, such members shall continue to serve until the first meeting of the board
13           appointed as provided in this Act, hereafter in this Section referred to as the "new board".
14           The provisions of R.S. 46:1609 as enacted by this Act are not applicable to the board during 15           the period of continued service prior to the first meeting of the new board as provided in this 16           Section.

17           (B) Each person or entity required by this Act to make an appointment shall, within 18           thirty days after the effective date of this Act, make the initial appointment and provide the 19           name of the appointee to the executive director of the office of the elderly affairs. After the 20           executive director has received notice that at least five members of the new board have been 21           appointed, he shall call the first meeting of the new board, which shall be held within thirty 22           days after he is notified that at least five such appointments have been made.

23           (C) Upon the convening of the first meeting of at least five members of the new 24           board, the new board shall become the governing authority of the East Baton Rouge Council
25           on Aging and be subject to the provisions of R.S. 46:1609 as enacted by this Act.

26           Section 3. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not 27           signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature
28           by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 29           vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 30           effective on the day following such approval."
