The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Angela L. DeJean.

DIGEST

SB 208 Original

2018 Regular Session

Hewitt

Present law provides that after conviction of a capital offense, a defendant shall not be allowed bail.

Proposed law retains present law but includes a sex offense where the victim is a minor as another circumstance in which a defendant shall not be allowed bail.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends C.Cr.P. Art. 312(G))