7 Association's thirty-ninth national championship held at Bennett's Water Ski and Wakeboard 8 School in Zachary, Louisiana, on October 19-21, 2017; and

9 WHEREAS, the Warhawk team is comprised of a group of outstanding skiers who 10 displayed skill and talent on and off the water and whose performance allowed the team to 11 earn a total of twelve thousand one hundred sixty-five points and the school's twenty-eighth 12 consecutive national championship title; and

13 WHEREAS, team member Hanna Straltsova set the new collegiate women's jump 14 record with a distance of one hundred fifty-nine feet, placed first in the slalom event with 15 a score of 3.5 buoys at thirty-eight feet off, placed third in the trick event with a score of four 16 thousand fifty points, and placed first in women's overall; and

17 WHEREAS, Siani Oliver placed second in the championship women's slalom event 18 with a score of 3.0 buoys at thirty-eight feet off; and

1           WHEREAS, Frederick Winter placed first in the championship men's slalom event 2 with a score of 2.5 buoys at forty-one feet off; and

3           WHEREAS, Thomas Poole placed second in the championship men's slalom event 4 with a score of 4.0 buoys at thirty-nine and one-half feet off and placed fifth in men's 5 overall; and

6           WHEREAS, Danylo Filchenko placed second in the championship men's trick event 7 with a score of six thousand seventy points and placed fourth in men's overall; and

8           WHEREAS, Aliaksandra Danisheuskaya placed second in the championship 9 women's jump event with a score of one hundred fifty-six feet, placed fourth in the women's 10 trick event with a score of three thousand nine hundred ten points, and placed second in 11 women's overall; and

12           WHEREAS, Emma Brunel placed fourth in the championship women's jump event 13 with a score of one hundred thirty-eight feet and placed fifth in women's overall; and

14           WHEREAS, Taylor Garcia placed first in the men's jump event with a score of one 15 hundred eighty-eight feet, placed fifth in the men's slalom event with a score of 2.0 buoys 16 at thirty-nine and one-half feet off, and placed first in men's overall; and

17           WHEREAS, the hard work, discipline, and individual performances of the Warhawk 18 ski team has rightly earned them the National Collegiate Water Ski Association National 19 Championship title for the twenty-eighth consecutive year.

20           THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana
21 does hereby commend and congratulate the University of Louisiana at Monroe Warhawk 22 Water Ski team upon winning the 2017 National Collegiate Water Ski Association National 23 Championship.

24           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the
