2018 Third Extraordinary Session

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4

BY SENATORS MORRELL, CARTER, PRICE AND BOUDREAUX AND REPRESENTATIVES BOUIE AND SMITH

CONDOLENCES. Expresses sincere condolences upon the death of Judge Joan Bernard Armstrong.

1	A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION
2	To express the sincere and heartfelt condolences of the Legislature of Louisiana upon the
3	passing of Judge Joan Bernard Armstrong of New Orleans and to note her many
4	accomplishments as a public servant and as an instrument for change in the judiciary
5	of the state.
6	WHEREAS, it is with deep sadness that the Legislature of Louisiana has learned of 7	the passing of Judge Joan Bernard Armstrong, a magnanimous public servant and former 8	Chief Judge of the Court of Appeal, Fourth Circuit, State of Louisiana; and
9	WHEREAS, an advocate for juvenile justice, the Honorable Joan Bernard Armstrong
10	was appointed to a juvenile court judgeship by Governor Edwin Edwards in January 1974
11	and was elected without opposition to that post in the Orleans Parish Juvenile Court in June
12	of that year; historically, the first female and the first African-American woman elected to 13	the judiciary in the state of Louisiana; and
14	WHEREAS, she served as the court's administrative judge from 1979 until 1981 and
15	on the court until 1984; and
16	WHEREAS, in 1984, Judge Armstrong was elected without opposition to the state
17	Court of Appeal, Fourth Circuit and became the first female appellate jurist; she became 18	chief judge of that court in 2003 and served in that position until her retirement in 2012; and

ORIGINAL SCR NO. 4

1	WHEREAS, Judge Armstrong served as a role model for other African-American
2	jurists, many of whom sought her guidance; she was a mentor and a source of inspiration for
3	many legal professionals; and
4	WHEREAS, known for her keen insight and understanding, she shared her
5	scholarship with others as an adjunct professor of law at Southern University Law Center
6	and at the Dr. Martin Luther King Criminal Justice Center located at Grambling State
7	University, and as a contributor to the American Judges Association Education Committee;
8	and
9	WHEREAS, as a distinguished alumna of McDonogh 35 Senior High School, she 10	matriculated to Xavier University and graduated in 1963; and
11	WHEREAS, while employed as a school teacher, Judge Armstrong attended night
12	classes at Loyola University New Orleans College of Law to earn a jurist doctor in 1967; and
13	WHEREAS, during her lengthy tenure on the bench, she administered justice on
14	behalf of the state and families and children brought before her in juvenile court and
15	authored extensive jurisprudence on a multitude of matters before her as an appellate jurist;
16	and
17	WHEREAS, Judge Armstrong wielded influence in state judiciary circles as chair
18	of the Louisiana Conference of Court of Appeal Judges and as a member of the Judiciary
19	Budgetary Board, the Judicial Ethics Committee, the Judicial Human Resources Committee,
20	and the Louisiana Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Criminal
21	Justice; and
22	WHEREAS, Judge Armstrong was acknowledged for her public service by the
23	receipt of a plethora of awards and honors far too numerous to count from judicial, fraternal,
24	religious, civic, philanthropic, educational, and national organizations that recognized her
25	exemplary community service and activism; and
26	WHEREAS, Judge Armstrong was presented with several awards of note from the
27	National Bar Association, including "Jurist of the Year" Award by the Women's Lawyers
28	Division and the "William H. Hastie" Award by the Judicial Council; and 29	WHEREAS, in January 2012, Judge Armstrong stepped down from the bench after
30	thirty-seven years of exceptional public service, which made her the longest-serving judge
50	unity-seven years of exceptional public service, which made her the tongest-service

1	in the state of Louisiana at the time; and
2	WHEREAS, in retirement, Judge Armstrong was sought after as a keynote speaker
3	and conferee by numerous judicial organizations; and
4	WHEREAS, the legacy of Judge Joan Bernard Armstrong is woven into the lives of
5	those individuals she encountered throughout her lifetime and in her positive influence that
6	has endured in generations of children and young adults; and
7	WHEREAS, Judge Armstrong was preceded in death by her husband, Andrew, and
8	survived by a son, former state representative the Reverend David Armstrong; a daughter,
9	Anna-Karletta Armstrong Alexander; two grandchildren, Amaya Alexander and Joshua
10	Alexander Jr.; and a host of beloved friends; and
11	WHEREAS, Judge Joan Bernard Armstrong was an uncommon individual of
12	extraordinary moral character and abiding faith, who supported the legal principles of gender
13	equity and racial equality that she knew to be just and righteous, and the ethical concept that
14	all human beings were to be afforded equal protection before the law.
15	THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby
16	express sincere and heartfelt condolences upon the passing of Judge Joan Bernard
17	Armstrong, formerly of the Orleans Parish Juvenile Court and Chief Judge of the Court of 18	Appeal, Fourth Circuit, State of Louisiana, for her tireless dedication to the improvement of 19	the administration of justice in Louisiana.
20	BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 21	family of Judge Joan Bernard Armstrong.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Susan P. Montague.
