HB 383 Original

2019 Regular Session

Davis

Abstract: Authorizes evidence of certain worker's compensation claims or payments of benefits to be admissible to a jury.

Present law prohibits evidence of the nature and extent of a worker's compensation claim or of payment of benefits from being admissible to a jury in any civil proceeding, but provides that such evidence shall be admissible and presented to the judge only.

Proposed law provides that such evidence may be admissible to a jury and shall be admissible and presented to the judge.
