Subject: Payments in Lieu of Ad Valorem Taxes

TAX/AD VALOREM-EXEMPTION OR SEE FISC NOTE LF RV See Note Page 1 of 1
(Constitutional Amendment) Establishes an ad valorem tax exemption for property subject to a cooperative endeavor agreement requiring the property owner to make payments in lieu of taxes

Present constitution enumerates specific properties that are exempt from ad valorem taxation and provides that no other property shall be exempt.

Proposed constitutional amendment adds to the exemptions property subject to a cooperative endeavor agreement in which the property owner makes payments in lieu of ad valorem taxes to the extent provided in the agreement, as provided by law. Eligible property includes property of manufacturing establishments, and other property which has been approved by a committee of the legislature as provided by law. Property under industrial tax exemption contract, within the first four years of such contract, is eligible for the agreements authorized by this amendment.

To be submitted to the electors at the statewide election to be held on October 12, 2019.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The amendment provides local governments the ability to grant ad valorem tax exemptions by agreement providing payments in lieu of taxes. Although there may be numerous reasons for both local governments and taxpayers to enter cooperative endeavor agreements to achieve community goals, the utilization of this authority may result in lower local ad valorem tax revenue collections, in that taxpayer payments in lieu of ad valorem tax may be lower than the ad valorem tax itself. Otherwise, taxpayers may not be inclined to enter the cooperative endeavor agreements. However the payments in lieu of ad valorem tax may provide resources for particular local projects that might not be available from other sources. Utilization of such agreements is speculative, and the ultimate local government aggregate revenue impacts can not be projected. In addition, it is not clear how, if at all, these agreements would effect the millage adjustment process and the shifting of tax burdens among taxpayers.

Given the bill's ballot date, it seems likely that the earliest fiscal year that could be affected would be FY21 for agreements affecting ad valorem taxes due in late 2020.
