BY SENATORS PRICE AND LAMBERT AND REPRESENTATIVES BACALA, BERTHELOT, BRASS AND SCHEXNAYDER

COMMENDATIONS. Commends Expert Maintenance & Construction Services, LLC, and its president, James J. Moore, on being named the Minority Small Business Champion of the Year for Louisiana.

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To commend and congratulate Expert Maintenance & Construction Services, LLC, and its president, James J. Moore, on being named the 2019 Minority Small Business Champion of the Year by the U.S. Small Business Administration Louisiana District.

WHEREAS, starting with only two employees, James J. Moore grew Expert Maintenance & Construction Services, LLC (EMCS) to eighty-five employees, as EMCS' client list and services offered grew because of the company's reputation for completing projects on time and on budget; and

WHEREAS, in addition to having an 8(a) certification, EMCS also has DBE certifications from Louisiana, Texas, and Mississippi and has completed projects on a multistate level with projects in Louisiana, South Carolina, Kansas, Missouri, and Texas with offices in all five states; and

WHEREAS, EMCS has worked on a variety of projects ranging from commercial office buildings, retail and entertainment facilities, levees, parking lots, highways, drainage systems, and rest areas for governmental entities - federal, state, and local - in addition to private entities, including projects with FEMA, USDA, USACE, South Carolina Weapons Base, and Whiteman Air Force Base in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, in 2011, EMCS revenue totaled $120,000; in 2012, $1.6 million; in

1 2013, $1.9 million; in 2014, over $3 million; in 2015, over $11 million; 2016, $12.5 million,
2 and in 2017, $17 million, and the increase in revenue and the subsequent profit has afforded 3 EMCS the opportunity and capability to obtain work and fund work independently and 4 without reliance on other financial resources; and

5 WHEREAS, EMCS president James J. Moore was one of five children to a single 6 mother, is the only child to attend college, and has had many personal challenges, including 7 the loss of a child; and

8 WHEREAS, a husband, father, businessman, community leader, and mentor to about 9 seven companies, he gives unselfishly of his time, know-how, and resources, and, in spite 10 of having a demanding schedule, manages to work with each protégé company individually; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, a man of enormous integrity, Mr. Moore knows success isn't given, but 13 earned, believes in paying it forward, and has established a scholarship program for all four 14 Ascension Parish high schools totaling $500 at each school; and

15 WHEREAS, he is a role model and mentor to his protégés and several young men 16 in the community, who constantly emphasizes that being a business owner is not for the 17 wary and the road is not always easy, however, with determination, dedication, and a 18 willingness to learn, that is the beginning to understanding how to run a business; and

19 WHEREAS, James J. Moore is more than his business - he created the Ascension 20 Minority Business Association to allow minorities the chance to learn more about business 21 opportunities through networking and gaining information, and he is associated with the 22 Ascension Fair Association, an organization that promotes community giving back to 23 community and assisting with mentoring children in school, helping the elderly and 24 handicapped with projects, and the Ascension Community Advisory Panel, an organization 25 that promotes communication between industry and community members; and

26 WHEREAS, EMCS mentorship of the proteges addresses issues of corporate growth, 27 project finance, technical assistance management techniques (such as budget and scheduling 28 of construction projects), as well as change order negotiation; and

29 WHEREAS, the U.S. Small Business Administration Louisiana District selected 30 EMCS as the 2019 Minority Small Business Champion of the Year in recognition of hard

1 work, innovative ideas, and dedication to community which have developed an outstanding 2 business that has strengthened the state's economy; and

3 WHEREAS, the success of the state of Louisiana, the strength of our communities, 4 and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon businesses such 5 as EMCS which provide jobs, products, and services that improve the quality of life of 6 Louisiana citizens and people like James J. Moore, who has devoted his life to community 7 development through promoting entrepreneurship and empowering businesses and 8 individuals.

9 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 10 commend and congratulate Expert Maintenance & Construction Services, LLC, and its 11 president, James J. Moore, on being named the 2019 Minority Small Business Champion of 12 the Year by the U.S. Small Business Administration Louisiana District.
