

1           WHEREAS, Head Coach Keith Greene along with assistant coaches, Thaddeus
2 Houston and Morgan Williams, have instilled in these young athletes the winning attitude 3 necessary to become great basketball players, accomplished academics, and outstanding 4 members of the community; together, they strived to capture the Class 5A title; and

5           WHEREAS, four Lady Gators led individual shooting tallies in double figures in the 6 championship game, Kennedi Heard with 17 points, Kiayra Ellis with 13 points, and Aaliyah 7 Stevenson and Addison Martin scored 12 points each; and

8           WHEREAS, during tournament play, guard Aaliyah Stevenson shot three 9 consecutive 3-pointers and was honored with the Most Outstanding Player Award; and

10          WHEREAS, the players on the Captain Shreve High School girls' basketball team 11 have earned these well-deserved accolades that exemplify their remarkable athletic ability, 12 uncommon work ethic, and unselfish dedication to each other, particularly at the most 13 demanding level of state athletic competition.

14          THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 15 commend the Captain Shreve High School Lady Gators upon winning the 2019 Allstate
16 Sugar Bowl/Louisiana High School Athletic Association girls' basketball championship title
17 for Class 5A.

18          BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to 19 Head Coach Keith Greene and Principal Ginger Gustavson of Captain Shreve High School.
