

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 264

BY SENATOR LUNEAU

A RESOLUTION

To commend Dianne Hollis Lundy on her accomplishments and contributions as an author and educator.

WHEREAS, Dianne Hollis Lundy grew up in the piney hills of north Louisiana and established her country roots; and

WHEREAS, she was a 4-H Club member, winning the Key Club Award her senior year in high school; and

WHEREAS, Dianne left her home in Rocky Branch, Louisiana, also known as "Nip 'n Tuck", to attend Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas, and obtained a Bachelor of Science in home economics; and

WHEREAS, she taught thirty-three years in Louisiana schools, obtained two graduate degrees from the University of Louisiana at Monroe and Northwestern State University, and was named to "Who's Who Among American Teachers" five times; and

WHEREAS, Dianne met her husband, Richard, on the radio while carpooling with a ham radio operator; and

WHEREAS, they married and had one son, who is now married with three daughters; and

WHEREAS, since retiring, she devotes her time to writing and spending time with her granddaughters, affectionately known as "The A-Team"; and

WHEREAS, after writing her humorous autobiography, "The Girl from Nip 'n Tuck", she now writes fictional stories; and

WHEREAS, Dianne Hollis Lundy is one of Louisiana's finest daughters and merits a special measure of commendation for her singular achievements as an author, educator, and ambassador for Louisiana.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend and congratulate Dianne Hollis Lundy on her accomplishments and contributions as an author and educator and does hereby extend to her best wishes for continued success and happiness in all of her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Dianne Hollis Lundy.
