HB 521 Original

2020 Regular Session

Hilferty

Abstract: Requires notice of reappraisal to be sent through certified mail and requires the notice to be mailed and received by the taxpayer no less than 30 days prior to the commencement of the appeal period.

Present law provides that in any year in which property is reappraised, assessors are required to give notice to taxpayers following the reappraisal.

Proposed law retains present law, but requires notice of reappraisal be sent via certified mail.

Proposed law further requires that the notice of reappraisal be mailed and received by the taxpayer no less than 30 days prior to the commencement of the appeal period.
