HB 290 Engrossed

2020 Regular Session

Bishop

Abstract: Prohibits disclosure of the address or telephone number of an election commissioner who is certified to serve in an election.

Present law provides that the records of the registrar of voters are public records. Provides exceptions.

Proposed law prohibits a registrar, a clerk of court, and the Dept. of State from disclosing the address or telephone number of any election commissioner who is certified to serve in an election.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
