DISTRICT ATTORNEYS: Provides relative to group health insurance for retired district attorneys

DIGEST

Present law provides that the cost of group health insurance premiums shall be paid from the district attorney's general fund for district attorneys who have retired with 25 years of creditable service in the District Attorneys' Retirement System, regardless of age, in the 5th, 7th, 18th, 21st, 23rd, 25th, 29th, 30th, and 40th Judicial Districts.

Proposed law retains present law except with regard to how the payment of the costs of group health insurance premiums are paid, proposed law no longer requires the costs of group health insurance premiums to be paid from the district attorney's general fund but rather allows for the premiums to be paid from the fund.
