8 Revision Comments - 2021

9 Physical and sexual abuse were formerly listed expressly. In this revision, 10 express reference to these forms of abuse has been deleted, but physical and sexual 11 abuse continue to meet the definition of domestic abuse in Article 162.

12 * * *

13 Art. 112. Determination of final periodic support

14 * * *

15 B. The court shall consider all relevant factors in determining the amount 16 and duration of final support, including:

17 * * *

18 (9) The existence, effect, and duration of any act of domestic abuse
19 ~~committed by the other spouse upon the claimant or a child of one of the spouses,~~ 20 ~~regardless of whether the other spouse was prosecuted for the act of domestic~~ 21 ~~violence~~ during the marriage.

22 * * *

23 Art. 134. Factors in determining child's best interest

24 A. Except as provided in Paragraph B of this Article, the court shall consider 25 all relevant factors in determining the best interest of the child, including:

26 (1) The potential for the child to be abused, ~~as defined by Children's Code~~
27 ~~Article 603, which shall be the primary consideration~~ or to be exposed to domestic 28 abuse.

29 (2) The existence, effect, and duration of any act of domestic abuse that may 30 affect the child.

1 ~~(2)~~(3) The love, affection, and other emotional ties between each party and 2 the child.

3 ~~(3)~~(4) The capacity and disposition of each party to give the child love, 4 affection, and spiritual guidance and to continue the education and rearing of the 5 child.

6 ~~(4)~~(5) The capacity and disposition of each party to provide the child with 7 food, clothing, medical care, and other material needs.

8 ~~(5)~~(6) The length of time the child has lived in a stable, adequate 9 environment, and the desirability of maintaining continuity of that environment.

10 ~~(6)~~(7) The permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed 11 custodial home or homes.

12 ~~(7)~~(8) The moral fitness of each party, insofar as it affects the welfare of the 13 child.

14 ~~(8)~~(9) The history of substance abuse, violence, or criminal activity of any 15 party.

16 ~~(9)~~(10) The mental and physical health of each party. ~~Evidence that an~~ 17 ~~abused parent suffers from the effects of past abuse by the other parent shall not be~~
18 ~~grounds for denying that parent custody.~~

19 ~~(10)~~(11) The home, school, and community history of the child.

20 ~~(11)~~(12) The reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child
21 to be of sufficient age to express a preference.

26 being while in the care of the other party.

27 ~~(13)~~(14) The distance between the respective residences of the parties.

28 ~~(14)~~(15) The responsibility for the care and rearing of the child previously 29 exercised by each party.

1 B. ~~In cases involving a history of committing family violence, as defined in~~
2 ~~R.S. 9:362, or domestic abuse, as defined in R.S. 46:2132, including sexual abuse,~~
3 ~~as defined in R.S. 14:403(A)(4)(b), whether or not a party has sought relief under~~ 4 ~~any applicable law, the court shall determine an award of custody or visitation in~~
5 ~~accordance with R.S. 9:341 and 364. The court may only find a history of~~ 6 ~~committing family violence if the court finds that one incident of family violence has~~ 7 ~~resulted in serious bodily injury or the court finds more than one incident of family~~
8 ~~violence. Evidence that a parent suffers from the effects of past domestic abuse by~~ 9 ~~the other parent shall not be the sole grounds for denying the abused parent custody.~~

10 C. In cases involving domestic abuse, the court shall award custody or 11 visitation in accordance with R.S. 9:364.

Revision Comments - 2021

13 (a) The placement of factors related to domestic abuse at the start of this list 14 is deliberate, as the existence of or potential for domestic abuse speaks directly to 15 safety, and therefore, the child's best interest. Moreover, the Post-Separation 16 Domestic Abuse Relief Act limits custodial and visitation rights of perpetrators of 17 domestic abuse substantially. R.S. 9:361 et seq.

18 (b) The factors in Subparagraphs (A)(1) and (2) are intended to be 19 comprehensive. The best interest of the child is impacted by abuse of the child, 20 abuse of other household members, domestic abuse by a party against a non-21 household member, and any other abuse to which the child is exposed or by which 22 the child may be affected. Under this revision, the court must consider not only 23 actual abuse that may have an effect on the child, but also facts and circumstances 24 that give rise to the potential that the child will be exposed to abuse.

25 (c) Under Paragraph B, when considering the mental and physical health of 26 the abused party, the judge must consider the effects of past domestic abuse on both 27 mental and physical health.

28 (d) When domestic abuse is alleged, the court is required to consider relevant 29 statutes, including the Post-Separation Domestic Abuse Relief Act, even when those 30 acts are not specifically pleaded. See, e.g., Melancon v. Russell, 258 So. 3d 955 (La.
31 App. 5th Cir. 2018).

* * *

Art. 136. Award of visitation rights

34 A. Subject to ~~R.S. 9:341 and 364~~ R.S. 9:364, a parent not granted custody
35 or joint custody of a child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court
36 finds, after a hearing, that visitation would not be in the best interest of the child.

* * *

1 D. In determining the best interest of the child under Subparagraph (B)(1)
2 or (2) of this Article, the court shall consider only the following factors:

3 * * *

4 (6) The potential for the child to be abused or to be exposed to domestic 5 abuse.

6 * * *

7 TITLE VI. ~~OF MASTER AND SERVANT~~ DOMESTIC ABUSE

8 Art. 162. Domestic abuse definition

9 Each of the following constitutes domestic abuse when committed by one 10 family member, current or former household member, or dating partner against 11 another:

12 (1) Physical or sexual abuse and any offense against the person, physical or 13 non-physical, as defined in the Louisiana Criminal Code, or the threat thereof, except 14 negligent injury and defamation, regardless of whether the perpetrator was 15 prosecuted.

16 (2) Any act or threat to act that is intended to coerce, control, punish, 17 intimidate, or exact revenge on the other party, for the purpose of preventing the 18 victim from reporting to law enforcement or requesting medical assistance or 19 emergency victim services, or for the purpose of depriving the victim of the means 20 or ability to resist the abuse or escape the relationship.

21 Revision Comments - 2021

22 (a) For offenses against the person, see R.S. 14:29 through 50.2.

23 (b) The singular includes the plural, and vice versa. See Article 3506 and 24 R.S. 1:7. Accordingly, domestic abuse as defined in this Article may be proved by 25 a pattern of behavior or an individual act or threat to act.

26 (c) Under Subparagraph (2), acts such as maintaining financial control over 27 an individual's resources for the purpose of creating dependence, withholding access 28 to money or credit cards, forbidding attendance at school or employment, stealing
29 assets, or withholding physical resources such as food, clothing, necessary
30 medications, or shelter to deprive them of the means or ability to resist or escape,
31 may rise to the level of domestic abuse. Cf., e.g., 19-A Maine Revised Statutes
32 Annotated §4002, Subsec. 3-B.

33 * * *

1 Art. 2315.8. Liability for damages caused by domestic abuse

2 A. In addition to general and special damages, exemplary damages may be
3 awarded upon proof that the injuries on which the action is based were caused by a 4 wanton and reckless disregard for the rights and safety of a family member or 5 household member, ~~as defined in R.S. 46:2132~~, through acts of domestic abuse
6 resulting in serious bodily injury or severe emotional and mental distress, regardless 7 of whether the defendant was prosecuted for ~~his or her~~ the acts.

3 G. Domestic offenses, stalking, and sex offenses. (1) In determining 4 conditions of release of a defendant who is alleged to have committed an offense
5 against the defendant's family member or household member, ~~as defined in R.S.~~
6 ~~46:2132~~, or against the defendant's dating partner, as defined in R.S. ~~46:2151~~
7 46:2132, or who is alleged to have committed the offense of domestic abuse battery
8 under the provisions of R.S. 14:35.3, or who is alleged to have committed the offense

17 whether the defendant poses a threat or danger to the victim. If the court determines 18 that the defendant poses such a threat or danger, it shall require as a condition of bail 19 that the defendant refrain from going to the residence or household of the victim, the 20 victim's school, and the victim's place of employment or otherwise contacting the 21 victim in any manner whatsoever, and shall refrain from having any further contact
22 with the victim. The court shall also require as a condition of bail that the defendant 23 be prohibited from communicating, by electronic communication, in writing, or 24 orally, with a victim of the offense or with any of the victim's immediate family
25 members. This condition shall not apply if the victim consents by way of a request 26 to the court and the court issues an order permitting the communication. If an 27 immediate family member of the victim consents by way of a request to the court 28 and the court issues an order permitting the communication, then the defendant may 29 contact that person. The court shall also consider any statistical evidence prepared

1 by the United States Department of Justice relative to the likelihood of such 2 defendant or any person in general who has raped or molested victims under the age
3 of thirteen years to commit sexual offenses against a victim under the age of thirteen 4 in the future.

13 Children's Code Article 1564 et seq. or the Post-Separation Domestic Abuse Relief
14 Act, R.S. 9:361 et seq.

16 §358.2. No appointment in ~~family violence~~ domestic abuse cases

17 Unless good cause is shown, the court shall not appoint a parenting

5 PART IV. POST-SEPARATION ~~FAMILY VIOLENCE~~

6 DOMESTIC ABUSE RELIEF ACT

7 §361. Legislative findings

8 The legislature hereby reiterates its previous findings and statements of 9 purpose set forth in R.S. 46:2121 and 2131 relative to ~~family violence~~ and domestic 10 ~~violence~~ abuse. The legislature further finds that the problems of ~~family violence~~
11 domestic abuse do not necessarily cease when the victimized family is ~~legally~~
12 separated or divorced. In fact, the ~~violence~~ abuse often escalates, and child custody 13 and visitation become the new forum for the continuation of the abuse. Because 14 current laws relative to child custody and visitation are based on an assumption that 15 even divorcing parents are in relatively equal positions of power, and that such 16 parents act in the children's best interest, these laws often work against the protection
17 of the ~~children and the abused spouse in families with a history~~ victims of family
18 ~~violence~~ domestic abuse. Consequently, laws designed to act in the children's best 19 interest may actually effect a contrary result due to the unique dynamics of ~~family~~
20 ~~violence~~ domestic abuse.

21 §362. Definitions

22 As used in this Part:

23 (1) "Abused parent" means the parent who has not committed ~~family~~
24 ~~violence~~ domestic abuse.

25 * * *

26 (3) "Court-monitored domestic abuse intervention program" means a 27 program, comprised of a minimum of twenty-six in-person sessions, that follows a 28 model designed specifically for perpetrators of domestic abuse. The offender's

1 progress in the program shall be monitored by the court. The provider of the 2 program shall have all of the following:

3 * * *

4 (c) Training in the causes and dynamics of domestic ~~violence~~ abuse,
5 characteristics of batterers, victim safety, and sensitivity of victims.

6 (4) "~~Family violence~~" includes but is not limited to physical or sexual abuse
7 and any offense against the person as defined in the Criminal Code of Louisiana,
8 except negligent injuring and defamation, committed by one parent against the other
9 parent or against any of the children. Family violence does not include reasonable 10 acts of self-defense utilized by one parent to protect himself or herself or a child in 11 the family from the family violence of the other parent. "Domestic abuse" has the 12 meaning provided in Civil Code Article 162(1).

13 (5) "Injunction" means a temporary restraining order or a preliminary or a 14 permanent court ordered injunction, as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, which 15 prohibits the ~~violent~~ abusive parent from in any way contacting the abused parent or 16 the children except for specific purposes set forth in the injunction, which shall be 17 limited to communications expressly dealing with the education, health, and welfare 18 of the children, or for any other purpose expressly agreed to by the abused parent.
19 All such injunctions shall prohibit the ~~violent~~ abusive parent, without the express 20 consent of the abused parent, from intentionally going within fifty yards of the home, 21 school, place of employment, or person of the abused parent and the children, or 22 within fifty feet of any of their automobiles, except as may otherwise be necessary
23 for court ordered visitation or except as otherwise necessitated by circumstances 24 considering the proximity of the parties' residences or places of employment. Such 25 injunctions shall be issued in the form of a Uniform Abuse Prevention Order and 26 transmitted to the Louisiana Protective Order Registry, as required by this Part.

27 (6) "Sexual abuse" includes but is not limited to acts which are prohibited
28 by R.S. 14:41, 42, 42.1, 43, 43.1, 43.2, 43.4, ~~78~~, 80, 81, 81.1, 81.2, 89 and 89.1.

1 (7) "Supervised visitation" means face-to-face contact between a parent and 2 a child which occurs in the immediate presence of a supervising person approved by 3 the court under conditions which prevent any physical abuse, threats, intimidation,
4 abduction, or humiliation of either the abused parent or the child. The supervising
5 person shall not be any relative, friend, therapist, or associate of the parent
6 ~~perpetrating family violence~~ domestic abuse. With the consent of the abused parent, 7 the supervising person may be a family member or friend of the abused parent. At 8 the request of the abused parent, the court may order that the supervising person shall 9 be a police officer or other competent professional. The parent who perpetrated 10 ~~family violence~~ domestic abuse shall pay any and all costs incurred in the 11 supervision of visitation. In no case shall supervised visitation be overnight or in the 12 home of the ~~violent~~ abusive parent.

13 §363. Ordered mediation prohibited

14 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in any separation,
15 divorce, child custody, visitation, child support, alimony, or community property 16 proceeding, no spouse or parent who satisfies the court that he or she, or any of the 17 children, has been the victim of ~~family violence~~ domestic abuse perpetrated by the 18 other spouse or parent shall be court ordered to participate in mediation.

19 §364. Child custody; visitation

20 A. ~~There is created a presumption that no parent who has a history of~~ 21 ~~perpetrating family violence, as defined in R.S. 9:362, or domestic abuse, as defined~~
22 ~~in R.S. 46:2132, or has subjected any of his or her children, stepchildren, or any~~
23 ~~household member, as defined in R.S. 46:2132, to sexual abuse, as defined in R.S.~~
24 ~~14:403, or has willingly permitted another to abuse any of his children or~~ 25 ~~stepchildren, despite having the ability to prevent the abuse, shall be awarded sole~~
26 ~~or joint custody of children. The court may find a history of perpetrating family~~
27 ~~violence if the court finds that one incident of family violence has resulted in serious~~
28 ~~bodily injury or the court finds more than one incident of family violence. There is~~ 29 a presumption that a parent shall not be awarded joint or sole custody when a court

1 finds that the parent has committed domestic abuse that has resulted in serious bodily
2 injury or has committed more than one incident of domestic abuse, or when a parent 3 has willingly permitted another to abuse any of his children or stepchildren despite 4 having the ability to prevent the abuse.

5 B. The presumption shall be overcome only if the court finds all of the 6 following by a preponderance of the evidence:

7 (1) The perpetrating parent has successfully completed a court-monitored
8 domestic abuse intervention program as defined in R.S. 9:362, or a treatment
9 program designed for sexual abusers, after the last instance of abuse.

10 (2) The perpetrating parent is not abusing alcohol or using illegal substances
11 scheduled in R.S. 40:964.

12 (3) The best interest of the child ~~or children~~, considering the factors listed
13 in Civil Code Article 134, requires the perpetrating parent's participation as a 14 custodial parent because of the other parent's absence, mental illness, substance 15 abuse, or other circumstance negatively affecting the child ~~or children~~.

16 C. The fact that the abused parent suffers from the effects of the domestic 17 abuse shall not be the sole grounds for denying that parent custody.

18 ~~D.E.~~ If the court finds that both parents have a history of perpetrating ~~family~~
19 ~~violence~~ domestic abuse, custody shall be awarded solely to the parent who is less 20 likely to continue to perpetrate ~~family violence~~ domestic abuse. In such a case, the 21 court shall mandate completion of a court-monitored domestic abuse intervention
22 program by the custodial parent. If necessary to protect the welfare of the child,
23 custody may be awarded to a suitable third person pursuant to Civil Code Article 24 133, provided that the person would not allow access to ~~a violent~~ an abusive parent
25 except as ordered by the court.

26 ~~E.D.~~ If the court finds that a parent has ~~a history of perpetrating family~~ 27 ~~violence~~ committed domestic abuse that has resulted in serious bodily injury or has 28 committed more than one incident of domestic abuse, or when a parent has willingly 29 permitted another to abuse any of his children or stepchildren despite having the

1 ability to prevent the abuse, the court shall allow only supervised ~~child~~ visitation
 2 with that parent ~~pursuant to R.S. 9:341~~. The court shall order supervised visitation
 3 only if the abusive parent proves by a preponderance of evidence that visitation
 4 would be in the best interest of the child, and that the visitation would not cause
 5 physical, emotional, or psychological damage to the child. If supervised visitation 6 is allowed, the court shall order such restrictions, conditions, and safeguards as are 7 necessary to minimize any risk of harm to the child. All costs incurred in compliance
 8 with the provisions of this Section shall be the responsibility of the abusive parent.

9 F. If any court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that a parent has 10 sexually abused ~~his or her~~ the child or children, the court shall prohibit all visitation
 11 and contact between the abusive parent and the ~~children pursuant to R.S. 9:341~~ child.

12 G. When visitation has been restricted or prohibited by the court pursuant to 13 Subsection D or F of this Section, and the court subsequently authorizes further 14 restricted visitation, the parent whose visitation has been restricted shall not remove 15 the child from the jurisdiction of the court except for good cause shown and with the 16 prior approval of the court.

Revision Comments - 2021

18 (a) This revision repeals R.S. 9:341. Portions of that statute are moved here, 19 however, including the second sentence of Subsection D and the entirety of 20 Subsection G.

21 (b) A custody order rendered in accordance with this Section may be 22 modified only if all of the factors set forth in Subsection B are proved by a 23 preponderance of the evidence, in addition to any other applicable standard required
 24 by law to modify the custody decree. See, e.g., Civil Code Article 131, Comment (d).

21 In the domestic abuse context in particular, reconciliation is to be carefully
22 evaluated with a view toward appreciating potentially responsive actions by victims
23 of domestic abuse. Because reconciliation is a juridical act, it may be conditional 24 (and the condition may fail, as in Tablada v. Tablada, 590 So. 2d 1357 (La. App. 5th 25 Cir. 1991)) and it may be affected by vices of consent, including fraud and duress.

28 Vinculo De Matrimonio Civil en El Derecho Español 298 (1959) (describing 29 reconciliation as a juridical act). Further, in order to resume the marital relationship,
