Prior law required the legislature to appropriate no less than $25,000 annually to the office of elderly affairs for distribution to various voluntary parish councils on aging for the operation of senior centers throughout the state.

New law increases the minimum appropriation requirement from $25,000 to $50,000.

Existing law requires the executive director of the office of elderly affairs to distribute the funds to each parish council on aging quarterly.

New law retains existing law.
