DIGEST

SB 242 Original

2024 Regular Session

Bouie

Proposed law prohibits an insurer that has issued a policy of homeowner's insurance from using aerial images to inspect the conditions of insured unless the images are taken within 12 months after the date the insured has purchased the policy.

Proposed law defines "aerial images" as pictures, recordings, or any physical evidence captured in the airspace above a property from an aircraft or other airborne platform, including but not limited to third-party proprietary aerial imagery taken by a fixed-wing aircraft and satellites.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
