1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact R.S. 37:3103(A)(8) and 3118(A)(1)(introductory paragraph), (B), and
3 (D)(1)(introductory paragraph) and (a), to enact R.S. 37:3113(B)(3) and (4) and
4 (D)(1)(f) and (g), and to repeal R.S. 37:3118(A)(4), relative to auctioneers; to 5 provide for definitions; to provide for qualifications of applicants; to provide for 6 bond requirements; and to provide for related matters.

7 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

8 Section 1. R.S. 37:3103(A)(8) and 3118(A)(1)(introductory paragraph), (B), and
9 (D)(1)(introductory paragraph) and (a) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S.
10 37:3113(B)(3) and (4) and (D)(1)(f) and (g) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

11 §3103. Definitions of terms

12 A. As used in this Chapter, these terms shall have the definitions ascribed to 13 them, unless the context indicates otherwise:

14 * * *

15 (8) "Internet-based platform" means ~~a website which is used by licensed~~
16 ~~auction houses or auctioneers to conduct auctions as defined in this Chapter. a~~
17 company that provides a forum through the internet for a person to sell the person's 18 immovable or movable property via the submission of silent bids using a computer
19 or other electronic device.

1 §3113. Qualifications of applicants

2 * * *

3 B. The board shall base determination of satisfactory minimum
4 qualifications for licensure of an entity as an auction business on the following
5 requirements:

6 * * *

7 (3) The applicant for licensure, excluding those who conduct wholesale
8 motor vehicle auctions in compliance with R.S. 32:794, shall designate a qualifying 9 party who shall be the legal representative for the auction business relative to the 10 provisions of this Chapter. The board may deny approval of the qualifying party for 11 good cause, which may include the ability of the proposed principal owner or 12 owners, principal shareholder or shareholders, or qualifying party to engage in the 13 auction business as demonstrated by his prior auction business experience. Evidence
14 which may be considered by the board shall be limited to any legal proceedings
15 against the qualifying party or businesses where the qualifying party was in a 16 position of control at the time a problem arose and the ultimate disposition of such
17 proceedings, any financial history of bankruptcies, unpaid judgments, insolvencies,
18 or any similar evidence. When the qualifying party terminates employment with the 19 licensee, the board shall be notified in writing within thirty days of the 20 disassociation, and another qualifying party shall qualify within sixty days. The 21 qualifying party or parties are any individual licensed as an auctioneer pursuant to 22 the requirements in this Chapter and are one or more of the following:

- 23 (a) An applicant sole proprietor or spouse of an applicant sole proprietor.
- 24 (b) Any employee of an applicant who has been in full-time employment for 25 one hundred twenty consecutive days immediately preceding the application. The 26 employee may be allowed to be the qualifying party for the licensed company and 27 related entities.
- 28 (c) Any stockholder, officer, or director of an applicant corporation.
- 29 (d) Any partner of an applicant partnership.

employee may be allowed to be the qualifying party for the licensed company and related entities.

- (3) Any stockholder, officer, or director of an applicant corporation.
- (4) Any partner of an applicant partnership.
- (5) Any member or manager of an applicant limited liability company.

Proposed law provides that if the entity intends to conduct auctions wherein vehicles will be auctioned as defined by present law, the entity must hold a valid dealer license pursuant to present law unless a valid dealer license is not required by the regulating agency.

Present law provides that an applicant for licensure of an entity as an auction business shall submit the information on an application form designated by the board.

Proposed law adds that a copy of the auctioneer license of the qualifying party and a copy of the dealer license for those entities conducting auctions of vehicles, if such license is required, shall be included on the application form.

Present law provides that except as otherwise provided in present law, each applicant for licensure as a resident auctioneer, apprentice auctioneer, or auction business shall deliver to and deposit with the board at the time of application either the sum of $10,000 in cash or a surety bond in the amount of $10,000.

Proposed law amends present law that each applicant for licensure as an auctioneer or apprentice auctioneer shall deliver to and deposit with the board at the time of application either the sum of $10,000 in cash or a surety bond in the amount of $10,000.

Proposed law adds that each applicant for licensure as an auction business shall deliver to and deposit with the board at the time of application either the sum of $25,000 in cash or a surety bond in the amount of $25,000.

Present law provides that the board may promulgate rules to require a cash deposit or surety bond not to exceed $10,000 as a condition of reinstatement of a license revoked, canceled, suspended, or otherwise restricted pursuant to present law.

Proposed law amends present law to state that the board may promulgate rules to require a cash deposit or surety bond not to exceed an amount equal to proposed law as a condition of reinstatement of a license revoked, canceled, suspended, or otherwise restricted pursuant to present law.

Present law provides that a licensed resident auctioneer shall not be required to deposit with the board an additional cash amount or an additional surety bond upon application for licensure as an auction business.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Present law provides that an auction business which is owned by a nonresident auctioneer shall, prior to being licensed by the board, post a surety bond in an amount which shall be the greater of either $10,000 or the amount of the bond required of an auction business owned by an auctioneer licensed in this state in the licensing jurisdiction of such nonresident auctioneer. Such bond shall name the board as beneficiary.

Proposed law amends present law to apply to a business owned by a nonresident auctioneer which received its license through reciprocity. Proposed law also changes the bond required from $10,000 to $25,000.

(Amends R.S. 37:3103(A)(8) and 3118(A)(1)(intro. para.), (B), and (D)(1)(intro. para.) and (a); Adds R.S. 37:3113(B)(3) and (4) and (D)(1)(f) and (g); Repeals R.S. 37:3118(A)(4))
