19	"§1103. Definitions
20	Unless the context otherwise requires, the words defined in this Section have
21	the following meaning when found in this Chapter:
22	* * *
23	(14) "Area of review" means the region surrounding a geologic sequestration
24	project where underground sources of drinking water may be endangered by the 25	injection activity and is delineated using computational modeling that accounts for
26	the physical and chemical properties of all phases of the injected carbon dioxide
27	stream and displaced fluids and is based on available site characterization,
28	monitoring, and operational data.
29	(15) "Geologic sequestration project" means an injection well or wells used
30	to emplace a carbon dioxide stream beneath the lowermost formation containing an

31 underground source of drinking water or wells used for geologic sequestration of 32 carbon dioxide that have received an expansion to the areal extent of an existing

11	shall provide a copy of the plan to the parish president, police jury president, or
12	mayor-president, depending on the form of parish government, for each parish within
13	the area of review for dissemination to the office of homeland security, local
14	emergency preparedness committee, or other appropriate emergency preparedness
15	or response agencies.
16	B. In addition to any other requirements imposed by administrative rules, the
17	emergency and remedial response plan shall provide for continuing training
18	programs for operating and maintenance personnel regarding potential hazards, risk
19	scenarios, and response actions.
20	C. The owner or operator shall also conduct at least one tabletop exercise for
21	each storage facility prior to the commencement of injection to simulate emergency
22	situations and responses thereto in coordination with the appropriate emergency
23
	preparedness and response agencies, as designated by the parish president, police 24	jury president, or mayor-president, depending on the form of parish government, for
25	each parish within the area of review."
