HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 68

BY REPRESENTATIVE CARVER

A RESOLUTION

To commend Steve Masters, director of LSU Baptist Collegiate Ministry, on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, Steve Masters has served with excellence at the LSU Baptist Collegiate Ministry since August 1991; during his tenure, he has consistently contributed to collegiate ministry on the national level through his work as a consultant and contributor on many committees; and

WHEREAS, Steve has been a champion for Baptist Disaster Relief, which sends teams to help families in crisis after natural disasters, and his most recent achievement is the development of a strategic training website for students called to ministry; and

WHEREAS, prior to serving at LSU, Steve served as the Baptist Collegiate Ministries intern at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock and Baptist Collegiate Ministries director at Arkansas Tech University and Oklahoma State University; and

WHEREAS, Steve is married to Pam Masters, and they have three daughters, Michelle (Rob), Danielle (Matt), and Lindsay (Adam), and eight grandchildren; the entire Masters family has made a significant impact on the collegiate ministry community; and

WHEREAS, Steve will continue to serve as the Louisiana Baptist Collegiate Ministry state development director; in this role he will focus on alumni relations, international student outreach, and transitional success of high school seniors as they move into college life; and

WHEREAS, Steve Masters is a truly inspiring leader who is most deserving of the highest recognition for his dedicated service to the LSU Baptist Collegiate Ministry.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend Steve Masters, director of LSU Baptist Collegiate Ministry, on the occasion of his retirement and does hereby extend sincerest wishes that he continue to prosper in all of his endeavors as he begins a new role with the Louisiana Baptist Collegiate Ministry.
