9 "(ii) Any person or persons shall be prohibited from receiving the special 10 assessment as provided in this Section if such person's or persons' adjusted gross 11 income, as reported in the federal tax return for the year prior to the application for 12 the special assessment, exceeds one hundred fifty thousand dollars. For persons applying for the special assessment whose filing status is married filing separately, 13 the adjusted gross income for purposes of this Section shall be determined by 14 15 combining the adjusted gross income on both federal tax returns. Beginning for the tax year 2026 2028 and for each tax year thereafter, the one hundred fifty thousand 16 dollar limit shall be adjusted annually by the Consumer Price Index as reported by 17 18 the United States Government. Notwithstanding any provision of this constitution 19 to the contrary, a decrease in the total amount of ad valorem tax collected by a taxing 20 authority as a result of the special assessment level shall be absorbed by the taxing 21 authority and shall not create any additional tax liability for other taxpayers in the 22 taxing district as a result of any subsequent reappraisal and valuation or millage 23 adjustment. Implementation of the special assessment level shall neither trigger nor be cause for a reappraisal of property or an adjustment of millages pursuant to the 24 25 provisions of Article VII, Section 23(B) of this constitution.
