COMMERCE: Provides relative to preventing restaurant reservation fraud

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Makes technical changes.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Proposed law defines "food service establishment" and "third-party restaurant reservation platform".

Proposed law provides for what a third-party restaurant reservation platform shall not do unless there is a written agreement between that third-party restaurant reservation platform and the food service establishment authorizing it to do so.

Proposed law provides that the attorney general may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $1000 for each violation of proposed law. Proposed law provides that civil penalties collected under proposed law shall be used to promote consumer protection and education.

Proposed law provides that for violations of proposed law the attorney general may seek restitution from a third-party restaurant reservation platform to a person who purchased a reservation not exceeding the amount actually paid by the person.
