

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 175

BY SENATORS BARROW, ABRAHAM, ALLAIN, BOUDREAUX, BOUIE, CARTER, CATHEY, CONNICK, DUPLESSIS, EDMONDS, FESI, FOIL, HENRY, HODGES, JACKSON-ANDREWS, JENKINS, KLEINPETER, LUNEAU, MIGUEZ, PRICE, REESE, SELTERS, STINE, WHEAT AND WOMACK

A RESOLUTION

To commend and congratulate Loren Sullivan, Verbon Muhammad, Sydney Cuillier, Ashley Lovelace, and Erich White, known collectively as "The Dream Team", on the remarkable achievement of earning an Emmy Award for their outstanding documentary, The Hidden Sport.

WHEREAS, The Hidden Sport is a compelling short documentary produced by students of Southern University that focuses on the world-renowned Southern University Human Jukebox marching band; and

WHEREAS, this powerful film explores the rigorous physical demands, discipline, and cultural significance of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) marching bands, particularly the Human Jukebox, framing their performances within the broader context of athleticism and competition; and

WHEREAS, The Hidden Sport challenges traditional definitions of sport and competition, spotlighting the dedication, precision, and excellence of marching band members and their contributions to HBCU culture and student life; and

WHEREAS, the documentary was conceived, produced, and directed by a talented group of Southern University students: Loren Sullivan, Verbon Muhammad, Sydney Cuillier, Ashley Lovelace, and Erich White, collectively known as "The Dream Team"; and

WHEREAS, an Emmy Award is a prestigious honor recognizing artistic and technical merit in the television industry; and

WHEREAS, through their exceptional storytelling, cinematic vision, and production skills, the Dream Team earned national recognition by receiving an Emmy Award in the Sports Emmy Awards category; and

WHEREAS, the students' project was further supported by a Coca-Cola HBCU Sports Production Grant, underscoring its excellence and the promise of the next generation of storytellers emerging from HBCUs; and

WHEREAS, this achievement not only brings honor to Southern University and the Human Jukebox but also elevates the visibility and appreciation of HBCU culture and student creativity on a national platform.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend and congratulate Loren Sullivan, Verbon Muhammad, Sydney Cuillier, Ashley Lovelace, and Erich White for their outstanding accomplishment in earning an Emmy Award for The Hidden Sport, and for their exemplary representation of Southern University and HBCUs nationwide.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to "The Dream Team" members: Loren Sullivan, Verbon Muhammad, Sydney Cuillier, Ashley Lovelace, and Erich White.
