HOUSE SUMMARY OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

HB 404 2025 Regular Session Willard

REVENUE DEPARTMENT: Provides relative to various tax administration functions of the Department of Revenue

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

- 1. Deletes proposed law prohibiting interest on refunds of sales and use tax overpayments by taxpayers with direct payment numbers. Provides instead that interest on overpayment amounts shall not begin to accrue until after the expiration of a certain period.
- 2. Provides standards for sourcing of abstracts of title created by a person having a place of business in La.
- 3. Prohibits refunds of, and accrual of interest on, any overpayments based on a tax shelter, tax sham, tax evasion scheme, or similarly illegitimate transaction.
- 4. Restores present law requiring certain content be included in the tax exemption budget prepared by the Dept. of Revenue (DOR).
- 5. Restores present law requiring each state agency that administers tax credits and rebates to report certain information on these incentives to the legislature.
- 6. Restores present law requiring reporting of sales-related information to DOR by certain alcoholic beverage wholesalers.
- 7. Makes technical corrections.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law establishes the Dept. of Revenue, referred to hereafter as the "department", as the collector of revenue for this state. Requires the department to collect and enforce collection of all taxes, penalties, interest, and other charges due pursuant to present law relative to revenue and taxation.

Proposed law revises various provisions of present law pertaining to administration by the department of various types of taxes, functions of the office of debt recovery within the department, and reporting on tax exemptions and incentives.

With respect to administration of alcoholic beverage taxes, proposed law repeals a requirement that out-of-state alcoholic beverage shippers mail their notices of shipments into La. and instead allows the secretary of the department to prescribe the method of reporting.

With respect to income tax administration, proposed law repeals an authorization for the department to institute a no-return option. Also repeals an authorization for the department to pay refunds by means of a debit card.

Proposed law prohibits refunds of, and accrual of interest on, any overpayments based on a tax shelter, tax sham, tax evasion scheme, or any transaction which lacks a legitimate business purpose or otherwise fails the economic substance doctrine as determined by a final decision of a court.

With respect to sales and use tax administration, proposed law prohibits accrual of interest on refunds of sales and use tax overpayments by taxpayers holding direct payment numbers until after the expiration of a certain period provided in proposed law.

Proposed law establishes a definition of "drop shipment sale" and rules for sourcing of such sales. Provides for sourcing of abstracts of title created by a person having a place of business in La. Provides that these rules relative to sourcing of drop shipment sales and abstracts shall be given prospective and retroactive application.

Proposed law repeals a special interest rate applicable to certain severance tax overpayments, thereby causing the general refund interest rate to apply to those overpayments.

Present law requires the department to prepare and submit to the governor and the legislature a tax exemption budget on or before March 1st annually. Proposed law revises requirements relative to the content of the tax exemption budget.

Proposed law repeals present law requiring the House Committee on Ways and Means and the Senate Committee on Revenue and Fiscal Affairs to conduct hearings on the tax exemption budget every odd-numbered year.

Present law establishes the office of debt recovery within the department. Establishes among the office's powers and duties the authority to recover delinquent tax debt from taxpayers' winnings from certain forms of gaming. Proposed law retains present law and extends this authority to winnings from sports wagering.

Proposed law repeals outdated references and expired provisions of present law.

The following provisions of proposed law become effective July 1, 2025: Accrual of interest on refunding of certain sales and use tax overpayments to taxpayers with direct payment numbers; repeal of the special interest rate applicable to certain severance tax overpayments. The remainder of proposed law becomes effective upon signature of the governor.
