

2025 Regular Session

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 359

BY REPRESENTATIVE ADAMS

A RESOLUTION

To commend Corrada Biazzo Curry on the occasion of her retirement from the Department of French Studies at Louisiana State University.

WHEREAS, Corrada Biazzo Curry is a senior instructor in the Louisiana State University Department of French Studies; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Curry received a laurea in modern languages and literatures from the University of Catania, Italy, in 1983, and wrote a dissertation in comparative literature that focused on the influence of English and American literature on two works by Gabriele D'Annunzio; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Curry received a Ph.D. in French literature from LSU in 1989, and focused her doctoral dissertation on Gustave Flaubert; her academic areas of interest include nineteenth- and twentieth-century French and Italian literature, creative writing, poetry, comparative literature, literary theory, and translation; and

WHEREAS, at LSU Dr. Curry has taught French and Italian courses in language and literature; she also taught at two universities in Rome: John Cabot and The American University of Rome; she is the secretary of the Friends of French Studies organization at LSU.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend Corrada Biazzo Curry on the occasion of her retirement from the Department of French Studies at Louisiana State University and does hereby extend enduring appreciation for her service to Louisiana State University and its students.
