2025 Regular Session

SENATE BILL NO. 28

BY SENATOR TALBOT AND REPRESENTATIVES BAYHAM, BILLINGS, CHASSION, ORGERON AND WILLARD

1	AN ACT
2	To enact R.S. 47:6044, relative to income tax credits; to establish an income tax credit
3	program for expenses related to fortifying a roof; to provide for definitions; to
4	provide for the amount of the credit; to provide for an annual cap; to provide for the
5	administration of the cap; to provide for an application process, certification, and
6	administration of the credit; to provide for application of the credits; to provide for
7	the recovery and recapture of credits; to authorize the promulgation of rules; to
8	provide for applicability; to provide for an effective date; and to provide for related
9	matters.
10	Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:
11	Section 1. R.S. 47:6044 is hereby enacted to read as follows:
12	§6044. Louisiana Fortified Roof Tax Credit Program
13	A. Definitions. For purposes of this Section:
14	(1) "Department" means the Louisiana Department of Revenue.
15	(2) "Qualified expenses" means the cost of purchase and installation paid
16	by a taxpayer to meet or exceed the fortified roof standard established by the
17	Insurance Institute for Business and Home Safety on qualifying property.
18	Qualified expenses shall not include permit, inspection, and other similar costs
19	necessary to obtain Insurance Institute for Business and Home Safety
20	certification.
21	(3) "Qualifying property" means insurable property, as defined in R.S.
22	22:1483, owned by a resident taxpayer and on which the resident taxpayer has
23	a homestead exemption. Qualifying property shall not include new construction
24	homes, condominiums, and mobile homes.
25	(4) "Secretary" means the secretary of the Louisiana Department of

SB NO. 28

ENROLLED

2nonrefundable credit against individual income tax for qualified expenses3incurred on or after July 1, 2025, for the installation of a fortified roof meeting4or exceeding the fortified roof standard established by the Insurance Institute5for Business and Home Safety.6(2) The credit shall be equal to the total amount of qualified expenses7paid by the resident taxpayer and certified by the Insurance Institute for8Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident9taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one10tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.11(3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute12for Business and Home Safety.13(4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of14this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.15(b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a16first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular17fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the18department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of19the subsequent year.20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the depart	1	B. Administration of the credit. (1) There is hereby allowed a
4       or exceeding the fortified roof standard established by the Insurance Institute         5       for Business and Home Safety.         6       (2) The credit shall be equal to the total amount of qualified expenses         7       paid by the resident taxpaver and certified by the Insurance Institute for         8       Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident         9       taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one         10       tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.         11       (3) The credit shall be carned when certified by the Insurance Institute         12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for on the first day of         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       da	2	nonrefundable credit against individual income tax for qualified expenses
5for Business and Home Safety.6(2) The credit shall be equal to the total amount of qualified expenses7paid by the resident taxpayer and certified by the Insurance Institute for8Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident9taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one10tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.11(3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute12for Business and Home Safety.13(4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of14this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.15(b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a16first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular17fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the18department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of19the subsequent year.20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23c. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits exceeds the26the credit is earned. If the total	3	incurred on or after July 1, 2025, for the installation of a fortified roof meeting
6       (2) The credit shall be equal to the total amount of qualified expenses         7       paid by the resident taxpayer and certified by the Insurance Institute for         8       Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident         9       taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one         10       tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.         11       (3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute         12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax         22       received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax	4	or exceeding the fortified roof standard established by the Insurance Institute
7       paid by the resident taxpayer and certified by the Insurance Institute for         8       Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident         9       taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one         10       tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.         11       (3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute         12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which	5	for Business and Home Safety.
8       Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident         9       taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one         10       tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.         11       (3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute         12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax         22       received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim	6	(2) The credit shall be equal to the total amount of qualified expenses
9       taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one         10       tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.         11       (3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute         12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         26       the credit taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit <th>7</th> <td>paid by the resident taxpayer and certified by the Insurance Institute for</td>	7	paid by the resident taxpayer and certified by the Insurance Institute for
10tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.11(3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute12for Business and Home Safety.13(4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of14this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.15(b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a16first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular17fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the18department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of19the subsequent year.20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit is carned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the26amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit27against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.28D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	8	Business and Home Safety, not to exceed ten thousand dollars per resident
11       (3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute         12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         26       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         27       amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit         28       against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exc	9	taxpayer. In no event shall a qualifying property be eligible for more than one
12       for Business and Home Safety.         13       (4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of         14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests         22       received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which         26       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         27       amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit         28       against subsequent tax liability for a period not to	10	tax credit authorized pursuant to this Section.
13(4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of14this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.15(b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a16first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular17fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the18department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of19the subsequent year.20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	11	(3) The credit shall be earned when certified by the Insurance Institute
14       this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.         15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which         26       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         27       amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit         28       against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.         29       D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	12	for Business and Home Safety.
15       (b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a         16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests         22       received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         27       amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit         28       against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.         29       D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	13	(4)(a) The total amount of credits issued pursuant to the provisions of
16       first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular         17       fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the         18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests         22       received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         27       amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit         28       against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.         29       D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	14	this Section shall not exceed ten million dollars per fiscal year.
17fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the18department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of19the subsequent year.20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	15	(b) The issuance of tax credits authorized by this Section shall be on a
18       department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of         19       the subsequent year.         20       (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business         21       day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests         22       received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax         23       credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.         24       C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim         25       the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which         26       the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the         27       amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit         28       against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.         29       D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident
19the subsequent year.20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	16	first-come, first-served basis. If the total amount of credits issued in a particular
20(c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident
21day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	17	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the
22received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	17 18	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of
23credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	17 18 19	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year.
24C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	17 18 19 20	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business
25the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	17 18 19 20 21	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests
26the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax
27amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit28against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.29D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis.
<ul> <li>28 against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.</li> <li>29 D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident</li> </ul>	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> <li>24</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis. C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim
29 D. Application Process, Certification, and Administration. (1) A resident	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> <li>24</li> <li>25</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis. C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which
	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> <li>24</li> <li>25</li> <li>26</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis. C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the
30 taxpayer seeking a tax credit pursuant to this Section shall submit an	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> <li>24</li> <li>25</li> <li>26</li> <li>27</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis. C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit
	<ol> <li>17</li> <li>18</li> <li>19</li> <li>20</li> <li>21</li> <li>22</li> <li>23</li> <li>24</li> <li>25</li> <li>26</li> <li>27</li> <li>28</li> </ol>	fiscal year exceeds the amount of tax credits authorized for that year, the department shall treat the excess as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year. (c) The department shall treat all requests received on the same business day as received at the same time. If the aggregate amount of the requests received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the department shall issue tax credits on a pro rata basis. C. Application of the credit. Taxpayers that earn a tax credit shall claim the credit on their individual income tax return for the taxable period in which the credit is earned. If the total amount of tax credits certified exceeds the amount of such taxes due, any unused credit may be carried forward as a credit against subsequent tax liability for a period not to exceed three years.

Page 2 of 4 Coding: Words which are struck through are deletions from existing law; words in boldface type and underscored are additions.

SB NO. 28

ENROLLED

1	application on a form prescribed by the department. The application period
2	shall begin on January first and conclude on June thirtieth of the calendar year
3	following the calendar year in which the credit is earned. The taxpayer shall
4	submit a copy of the certificate issued by the Insurance Institute for Business
5	and Home Safety certifying compliance with the fortified roof building
6	standards when applying for the tax credit. The taxpayer shall attach all
7	required documentation to the application.
8	(2) The department shall review the application and any other
9	information deemed necessary for determination of the qualified expenses
10	eligibility.
11	E.(1) Recapture of credits. If the department or the secretary find that
12	expenses for which a taxpayer received credits pursuant to this Section were not
13	for qualifying expenditures for a credit, then the taxpayer's state income tax for
14	such taxable period shall be increased by such amount necessary for the
15	recapture of credit provided by this Section.
16	(2)(a) Recovery of credits by the Department of Revenue. Credits
17	granted to a taxpayer, but later disallowed, may be recovered by the secretary
18	through any collection remedy authorized by R.S. 47:1561 and initiated within
19	three years from December thirty-first of the year in which the credit was
20	taken.
21	(b) The only interest that may be assessed and collected on recovered
22	credits is interest determined in accordance with R.S. 47:1601(A)(2), which shall
23	be computed from the original date of the return on which the credit was taken.
24	(3) The provisions of this Subsection are in addition to and shall not limit
25	the authority of the secretary to assess or to collect under any other provision
26	of law.
27	F. The department shall promulgate rules in accordance with the
28	Administrative Procedure Act to establish the policies for administration of the
29	eligibility criteria and any other matters necessary to carry out the purpose of
30	this Section.

SB NO. 28

ENROLLED

1	G. A taxpayer shall not receive a tax credit pursuant to this Section if a
2	grant amount is received by the taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of R.S.
3	22:1483.1.
4	H. A taxpayer shall not receive any other state tax credit, exemption,
5	exclusion, deduction, or any other tax benefit for which the taxpayer has
6	received a tax credit pursuant to this Section.
7	I. No credit shall be earned pursuant to the provisions of this Section
8	after December 31, 2031.
9	Section 2. The provisions of this Act shall apply to qualifying expenses paid on or
10	after July 1, 2025.
11	Section 3. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not
12	signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature
13	by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If
14	vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become
15	effective on the day following such approval.

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA

APPROVED: _____