

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

HCR 44

2025 Regular Session

Boyd

Requests the Louisiana State University (LSU) School of Public Health to change the recommended starting age for routine mammography from forty to thirty years old for individuals at average risk.

Requests LSU School of Public Health to create a program within the Louisiana Breast and Cervical Health Program for early breast cancer screening to begin at age thirty.