

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 310 (HB 212)

2025 Regular Session

Orgeron

Existing law provides that distilled spirits shall be packed with 12 containers per shipping case for container sizes of 700 milliliters.

New law clarifies that container sizes of 700 milliliters shall be packed with not more than 12 containers per shipping case.

Existing law provides that distilled spirits shall be packed with 24 containers per shipping case for container sizes of 375 milliliters.

New law clarifies that container sizes of 375 milliliters shall be packed with not more than 24 containers per shipping case.

Existing law provides that distilled spirits shall be packed with 48 containers per shipping case for container sizes of 200 milliliters.

New law clarifies that container sizes of 200 milliliters shall be packed with not more than 48 containers per shipping case.

Existing law provides that distilled spirits shall be packed with 48 containers per shipping case for container sizes of 100 milliliters.

New law clarifies that container sizes of 100 milliliters shall be packed with not more than 48 containers per shipping case.

New law provides that the container size per shipping container shall not apply to package distilled spirit-based beverages with an alcohol content below six percent.

Prior law provided that wines shall be packed with four containers per shipping case for container sizes of three liters.

New law provides that wines shall be packed with not more than six containers per shipping case.

Existing law provides that wines shall be packed with six containers per shipping case for container sizes of 1.5 liters.

New law clarifies that container sizes of 1.5 liters shall be packed with not more than six containers per shipping case.

Existing law provides that wines shall be packed with 12 containers per shipping case for container sizes of one liter.

New law clarifies that container sizes of one liter shall be packed with not more than 12 containers per shipping case.

Existing law provides that wines shall be packed with 12 containers per shipping case for container sizes of 750 milliliters.

New law clarifies that container sizes of 750 milliliters shall be packed with not more than 12 containers per shipping case.

New law provides that wine container sizes of 200 milliliters shall be packed with not more than 48 wine containers per shipping case.

Effective August 1, 2025.

(Amends R.S. 26:351(3)(a) and (4)(a); Adds R.S. 26:351(3)(c))

