

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 303 (HB 681)

2025 Regular Session

Bryant

Existing law provides protections for the personal information of protected individuals, including a current or retired justice of the La. Supreme Court, a current or retired judge of an appellate, district, family, juvenile, parish, city, or municipal court established under the Constitution of La., a current or retired justice or judge of a federal court domiciled in the state, a current or retired magistrate appointed by a state court, a current or retired U.S. magistrate judge domiciled in the state, or a current or retired commissioner or hearing officer of any district court in the state.

New law additionally includes current or retired district attorneys, assistant district attorneys, district attorney investigators, current members of the legislature, current statewide elected officials, and current members of the public service commission as protected individuals.

Existing law protects the home address, home and mobile telephone number, personal email address, social security number, driver's license number, federal tax identification number, bank account numbers, credit or debit card number, license plate number or unique identifier of a vehicle, marital record, date of birth, school or daycare of a child, or place of worship of a protected individual and the employment location of a spouse, child, or dependent of a protected individual.

Existing law authorizes a protected individual or the judicial administrator's office to request that a public body or third party not publish the protected individual's personal information and remove the personal information from any existing publication.

New law authorizes the La. District Attorneys Association to make such a request on behalf of a current or retired district attorney, assistant district attorney, or district attorney investigator.

New law provides that existing law and new law do not apply to personal information on records publicly posted by the office of the secretary of state.

Existing law (R.S. 44:1) defines "public body" for purposes of the Public Records Law, which includes existing law and new law.

Effective February 1, 2026.

(Amends R.S. 44:11.2(E)(1)(intro. para.) and (2)(c) and (H)(intro. para.); Adds R.S. 44:11.2(A)(6), (7), (8), (9) and (J); Repeals R.S. 44:11.2(D))
