

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

HR 342

2025 Regular Session

Beaulieu

Existing constitution (Const. Art. III, §16(F)) provides that no conference committee report or amendment from the Senate on a bill appropriating money shall be considered for concurrence until at least 48 hours after the bill, a summary detailing the proposed changes to the bill, and any additional information required by the joint rules of the legislature and the rules of the house of the legislature considering concurrence have been distributed to each member of that house of the legislature.

Existing Joint Rule (Joint Rule 22) provides that for purposes of concurring in Senate amendments to all appropriations bills, including the General Appropriation Bill, a summary of the proposed changes to the bill is the only information required.

Existing Joint Rule further provides that for purposes of adopting a conference committee report on the General Appropriation Bill, an unofficial enrollment and summary of the proposed changes to the bill is the only information required.

Existing Joint Rule further provides that for purposes of adopting a conference committee report on any appropriation bill other than the General Appropriation Bill, a summary of the proposed changes to the bill is the only information required.

Existing Joint Rule requires the information to be made available at least forty-eight hours prior to a vote.

New House Rule provides that the additional information required pursuant to existing constitution for purposes of adopting a conference committee report for or concurring in Senate amendments to an appropriations bill shall be as provided in existing Joint Rule.
