

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 477 (HB 617)

2025 Regular Session

Carver

Prior law provided that within the Dept. of Children and Family Services (DCFS) each organizational unit which reports to the secretary, which is not an agency and not within the division of management and finance, the division of child welfare, or the division of family support, shall be in the executive division and shall be designated as bureau, section, or unit.

New law repeals prior law.

Prior law provided that DCFS shall be composed of the executive office of children and family services, and such other offices as shall be created by law.

New law provides that DCFS shall be composed of the executive office of the secretary, office of management and finance, office of child welfare, office of child support, and other offices as shall be created by law.

New law provides that there shall be an assistant secretary of child welfare and an assistant secretary of child support and that each assistant secretary shall employ staff as necessary for the efficient administration of its office and programs.

Prior law provided that the office of children and family services shall administer services related to public assistance programs including food stamps, child support, and disability determinations and administer public child welfare programs including programs to prevent child abuse, establish child protective services, and facilitate adoption.

New law repeals prior law and provides that DCFS shall be organized into the following offices:

- (1) The executive office of the secretary which shall provide for the general oversight and supervision of DCFS.
- (2) The office of child welfare which shall provide for child protective services, human trafficking programs, foster children and adoption placement services, and prevention of child abuse and neglect.
- (3) The office of child support which shall provide for the administration of child support programs.

New law makes corresponding technical corrections in relevant statutory provisions.

Prior law directed DCFS to prepare and submit a state plan for participation in the Child Care and Development Block Grant Program until such authority is transferred to the state Dept. of Education in accordance with existing law (R.S. 17:407.28), and in the Title IV-A federal program to assist families at risk of welfare dependency.

New law repeals prior law.

Prior law directed DCFS to submit a proposal for reform of the food stamp program.

New law repeals prior law.

Prior law tasked DCFS with administering and supervising all forms of public assistance.

New law repeals prior law.

Prior law directed DCFS to construct and operate state-supported detention facilities.

New law repeals prior law.

Effective October 1, 2027, except that provisions amending prior law (R.S. 36:477(B)(1) are effective October 1, 2025.
