HB 55 Original

2026 Regular Session

Villio

Abstract: Provides for the disclosure of identifying information of jurors.

Proposed law provides that no person shall intentionally disclose certain information that would identify someone who served on a jury.

Proposed law creates an exception for when a court finds good cause following a motion to disclose the identifying information.

Proposed law provides a penalty of up to $1,000 or six months imprisonment, or both.

Proposed law adds an exception to present law regarding public records.

(Amends R.S. 44:4.1(B)(39); Adds C.Cr.P. Art. 794.1)
